

Interview with Dr. David Plaisted

Saturday, April 18, 2015

play

stop

mute

previous

next

Interview with Dr. David Plaisted

Dr. David Plaisted, a professor of computer science at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, tells us of how he came to believe in evolution in high school but later began to consider the creation/evolution question when someone introduced him to a book on scientific evidence for the flood and creation. Dr. Plaisted goes on to talk about major problems with evolutionary theory in the fields of paleontology, biology, and astronomy.

Triangle Association for the Science of Creation

Copyright © TASC, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

Source URL: <https://www.tasc-creationscience.org/audio/interview-dr-david-plaisted>